

CAMP RULES

1. Camps are intended to provide a positive learning experience for each participant. As such, all attendees are expected to behave in an appropriate manner and to respectfully follow the Camp Director's rules and the instructions and guidance of the camp staff. By enrolling in camp, each attendee acknowledges that good behavior is essential to the provision of instruction at each camp and that any attendee's failure to act accordingly may result in the attendee being dismissed from the camp. Any attendee who is dismissed for disciplinary problems shall be responsible for arranging appropriate transportation home for such attendee.
2. Camp participants and camp personnel are not allowed to drive or ride in personal vehicles during the dates of the program unless they receive specific permission to do so from the Camp Director. While it may be necessary for some camp participants to drive to Shorter campus at the beginning of camp, it is our policy that all campers must turn their car keys in to the Camp Director for the duration of the camp. Neither Shorter University, nor the camp staff, will be responsible for damage to your vehicle or for any parking tickets, fines, or towing charges that result from violations. Any authorized drivers on campus must obey the posted 15 mph speed limit on campus.
3. Camp participants are to remain on campus during the camp unless camp activities require otherwise. If a camper needs to leave campus for some reason, the Camp Director must receive prior written permission from the parent or guardian before allowing the camper to leave campus.
4. Shorter regulations prohibit the use of alcohol, tobacco, synthetic marijuana or other similar synthetic drugs, and all other illegal substances. Attendees may not possess, use, distribute, or sell alcoholic beverages, tobacco, drugs, synthetic marijuana, firearms, weapons or fireworks.
5. Males and females are not permitted to enter the rooms or hallways of the opposite gender. The only people permitted in your room are counseling staff, members of your immediate family, your roommate, and other attendees of the same gender.
6. Attendees must attend all planned camp activities.
7. Camp attendees must abide by all curfews and "Lights Out" announcements from the Camp Director. Attendees must be in their own room at lights out and remain there until morning. Any use of cell phones or other electronic devices is prohibited after "Lights Out."
8. Shorter University telephones, computers, and printers are not to be used by camp attendees unless prior written authorization is received from the Camp Coordinator and the Camp Director. Even when permission has been granted, Camp attendees must never misuse internet privileges. Attempting to access unauthorized sites is strictly prohibited.
9. Attendees must abide by all rules and policies established by Shorter University and the Camp Director as set forth in the Shorter University Camp Manual and Summer Camp Guide.
10. Any individual found tampering with any fire equipment (i.e., fire extinguishers, fire alarms, smoke detectors, etc.) will be dismissed from camp immediately.
11. All furniture must remain unchanged, kept in the room, and be well maintained. Windows must remain closed and locked at all times in the residence halls, and the blinds must be closed after dark. All trash should be deposited in the trash cans on the hallways each day of camp.

12. Vandalism and pranks will not be permitted. No water balloons or water guns are allowed on campus. Any damages caused in rooms or common areas will be charged to the responsible party. Replacement cost will be charged to anyone who removes or damages University property.
13. Neither Shorter University, nor the camp staff, are responsible for lost or stolen items. Attendees should keep all room doors locked at all times and should take their room key when leaving the room. Those who lose a key must pay for a replacement. Lost key fees are $50 per room key and $25 per building access key. Leave excess money and valuables at home. Valuables, including jewelry, radios, cd players, iPods, cell phones, etc., may be brought to camp, but only at the participant's own risk.

MEDICAL: A medical release form must be signed by the attendee to ensure that appropriate medical treatment may be administered in an emergency situation. ATTENDEES MAY BE DENIED PARTICIPATION IF PROPER MEDICAL AUTHORIZATION IS NOT PROVIDED.
